National Association of Tax Professionals announces 2024 board of directors
President re-elected, one new member added to board

APPLETON, Wis. (Dec. 5, 2023) – Jaimee Hammer, EA, was re-elected president of the national board of directors for the National Association of Tax Professionals. Her term will begin Jan. 1, 2024, and end Dec. 31, 2024.

Other board of directors elected officials include:

- Dorothy Havey, AFSP, vice president
- Jackie Sanders, AFSP, secretary
- Charles Markham, EA, MST, CPA, treasurer

LaVeta Scherer will join the board in January alongside Melissa Bowman, Sherri Hoskisson, Richard Moring III, Anna Stevens and Jim Vann. Members vote annually for their national board.

“I am deeply honored and humbled to have been elected to serve another year as the president of the NATP national board,” Hammer said. “I am eager to get to work and collaborate with other board officials, our members and industry stakeholders to navigate the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead.”

To qualify, interested NATP members must be at least 25 years old and work full-time or part-time in the tax preparation industry. They must also have been an NATP member for at least three of the last five years, one of which is the year preceding their nomination. The full list of qualifications can be found on the NATP website.

“An effective NATP board is crucial to the success of the organization,” Scott Artman, CPA, CGMA, NATP chief executive officer, said. “In a time when the tax industry holds undeniable significance, the role of our association becomes even more crucial. I am confident that, with the leadership and support of the 2024 board, NATP will continue to be the go-to resource for preparers this year and beyond.”
