Tax Season Updates cover latest legislation in two-day workshop worth 16 CPE

Events taking place in 100+ locations across the U.S.

APPLETON, Wis. (Aug. 2, 2021) – Registration is now open for all 100+ Tax Season Updates events, hosted by the National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP). These events are located throughout the country to reach tax professionals in every state. This event is also offered virtually, which Premium level NATP members can attend for free.

These events, formerly known as the 1040 Updates, are designed to help tax professionals understand the complexities of tax law to help you serve your clients with the excellence they deserve. Taught by a team of instructors using hands-on learning tools, this two-day workshop provides detailed, in-depth information on the most recent legislation and IRS updates. Attendees will earn 16 CPE by the end.

Each event will include information and analyze provisions of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, and the American Rescue Plan Act, and how these provisions affect U.S. taxpayer clients. Attendees will learn how to determine the tax treatment of different sources of income, apply inflation-adjusted amounts to 2021 individual returns, and analyze the change in tax rules for certain credits and deductions, including the expanded child tax credit and the third economic impact payment, including plus-up payments.

Registration also includes an on-demand webinar in January covering any last-minute tax law changes, a quick reference desk card, a multi-page tax law quick reference guide with flowcharts, an e-book with handouts from each session and a certificate of completion.

The first live in-person events begin Oct. 25, 2021, in Lakewood, Colorado; Bay City, Michigan; Memphis, Tennessee; Perrysburg, Ohio; Liverpool, New York; and Bismark, North Dakota.
