Registration now open for NATP's annual TaxCon event

Virtual education event will take place Aug. 24-26; more than 35 sessions, instructor interaction, virtual expo hall rooms and more

APPLETON, Wis. (March 10, 2021) – Registration is now open for the National Association of Tax Professionals' (NATP) virtual education event – TaxCon.

This year's event will be held Aug. 24-26 and features over 35 CPE-qualifying sessions. After the event, attendees will have access to recordings of all sessions presented. Each session includes handouts that contain supplemental information available for download.

This year's sessions will include, when applicable, the impacts of COVID-19 on tax professionals and their clients. Topics include: S corporations, IRS representation, cyber security, retirement changes, PPP loan reporting, virtual currency, ITINs, cannabis reporting, working from home tax implications and more.

Attendees can view the sessions from the comfort of their own home or office while learning from industry experts about important topics tax pros will likely encounter when preparing 2021 returns.

Exhibitors interested in a virtual booth are encouraged to contact NATP at strategicrelations@natptax.com.
