

Elizabeth Corbisier
Tax Researcher

Elizabeth Corbisier is a Tax Researcher for the National Association of Tax Professionals. In this position she answers federal tax questions and writes and proof-reads articles for the association's weekly, monthly, and quarterly publications.

Prior to joining NATP, Corbisier worked as a tax preparer in a CPA firm and in the hotel and restaurant industries. She holds an associate's degree in accounting from Northeast Wisconsin Technical College in Green Bay, WI.