

Stephanie Davis Tax Researcher

Stephanie Davis is a Tax Researcher for the National Association of Tax Professionals. In this position she answers federal tax questions and writes and proofreads articles for the association's weekly, monthly, and quarterly publications.

Prior to joining NATP, Davis spent 15 years working in the tax field covering both individual and corporate tax issues. Additionally, she worked as an accountant for a construction company.

Davis is currently studying for her associate's degree in accounting from the University of Phoenix.