

Tom O'Saben, EA, CFP® Training Specialist

Tom graduated from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in 1982 with degrees in political science and finance. He has been a Certified Financial Planner® since 1993 and an Enrolled Agent since 1994. Along with a staff of four, Tom's practice, established in 1992, provides tax, accounting, and financial planning services for approximately 1,000 clients. In November 2003, Tom merged his practice with FCB Banks, a group of nine locations in Southern Illinois, mostly located in the St. Louis, Missouri metropolitan area to provide his clientele with additional services, as well as to provide tax and accounting services to the customer base of the bank. Tom also provides Quickbooks training and has given numerous educational presentations on a wide variety of tax and financial planning issues. He recently joined the staff at NATP as a Training Specialist where he develops curriculum, writes textbooks, and instructs at educational seminars.
