National Association of Tax Professionals hires new manager of state chapter activity
Cynthia Jackson to oversee NATP state chapters, chapter events

APPLETON, Wis. (April 12, 2021) – The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) welcomes new Chapter Program Manager, Cynthia Jackson, to its national staff. In her role, Jackson oversees 41 active NATP state chapters and supports chapter leaders in their efforts to provide local members timely education, resources and networking opportunities.

Jackson joins the NATP team with more than 15 years of previous association experience in chapter leadership, fiscal management, volunteer management and strategic planning. She has a passion for association chapters and is excited to continue that work with NATP to enhance and expand the state programs.

“Our chapters are a valued part of NATP and we look forward to watch their growth and successes with Cynthia working alongside them,” said Scott Artman, CPA, NATP executive director.

Originally from Colorado, Jackson holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Denver and a master’s degree in business administration from Regis University in Denver. She also has two professional certificates from the American Society of Association Executives.
