

Media contact:

Samantha Strong, NATP public relations and digital content manager
sstrong@natptax.com
800-558-3402, ext. 1178

Nancy Kasten, NATP marketing and communications director
nkasten@natptax.com
800-558-3402, ext. 1172

Tax professionals, industry experts, thought leaders sought for July 2024 tax industry event
National Association of Tax Professionals accepting speaker proposals for 2024 Taxposium

APPLETON, Wis. (Nov. 16, 2023) – The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is excited to announce an open call for speaker proposals for the industry’s elite education event – Taxposium.

As the premier event for tax professionals to exchange knowledge, insights, and best practices, Taxposium 2024 aims to deliver dynamic and comprehensive sessions that address the evolving landscape of the tax industry. This year’s event will be held July 22-24, 2024, at the Walt Disney World Dolphin.

The association welcomes proposals from experienced professionals, industry experts and thought leaders who can contribute valuable content and engage with a diverse audience.

Key areas of interest for speaker proposals include:

1. Cutting-edge tax strategies: Share innovative and effective tax strategies that address the latest developments and challenges in the industry.
2. Regulatory updates and compliance: Provide insights into recent regulatory changes, compliance requirements, and their impact on tax professionals and businesses.
3. Technology and automation: Explore the integration of technology and automation in tax practices, offering practical solutions for efficiency and accuracy.
4. Professional development: Offer sessions focused on the continuous professional development of tax practitioners, including skill-building workshops and career advancement insights.
5. Diversity and inclusion in tax: Contribute to discussions on promoting diversity and inclusion within the tax profession, showcasing successful case studies and best practices.

“Taxposium is so much more than just another industry event – it’s an experience that will leave attendees refreshed and reinvigorated to be the best version of themselves, both personally and professionally,” said NATP’s manager of in-person programs, Lea Ann Reed. “We’re committed to cultivating a diverse and inclusive speaker lineup that reflects the richness of perspectives within the tax community and look forward to reviewing all of the proposals that will enhance the overall experience for attendees.”

Submissions must be received by Dec. 4, 2024. More information can be found at taxposium.com/proposal.

To speak with someone further about Taxposium, please contact Samantha Strong or Nancy Kasten

###

About NATP: The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is the largest association dedicated to equipping tax professionals with the resources, connections and education they need to provide the highest level of service to their clients. 23,000 members rely on NATP to deliver professional connections, content expertise and advocacy that provides them with the support they need to best serve their clients. The NATP headquarters is in Appleton, Wis. To learn more, visit www.natptax.com.

Looking for a tax expert? Tom O’Saben, EA, director of tax content and government relations at the National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP), is available for phone or video interviews to discuss federal tax topics including tax law change and its implications, taxpayer issues, tax preparer regulation and more. To schedule an interview with O’Saben, contact sstrong@natptax.com or nkasten@natptax.com.