

COVID-19 SAFETY INFORMATION:

NATP considers the safety of all attendees at our in-person events as our top priority. Our host locations have established rigorous standards to provide peace of mind about the cleanliness and safety of the facility. We are bold in our commitment to keeping all attendees as safe as possible at our events by abiding to the requirements mandated by the state and local agencies. We continue to monitor for any changes and will keep attendees informed. Because COVID-19 is extremely contagious, NATP has put in place preventative measures to reduce the spread. However, NATP cannot guarantee that its participants, volunteers, partners, or others in attendance will not become infected with COVID-19.

In light of the ongoing spread of COVID-19, individuals who fall within any of the categories below should not engage in NATP events. By attending an NATP event, you certify that you do not fall into any of the following categories:

- Individuals who currently or within the past fourteen (14) days have experienced any symptoms associated with COVID-19, which include fever, cough, and shortness of breath among others;
- Individuals who believe that they may have been exposed to a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19 or have been diagnosed with COVID-19 and are not yet cleared as non-contagious by state or local public health authorities or the health care team responsible for their treatment.

DUTY TO SELF-MONITOR:

Staff, attendees, and other event participants, agree to self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 (symptoms typically include fever, cough, and shortness of breath) and agree to contact Janine Diana, NATP Human Resources at jdiana@natptax.com if they experience symptoms of COVID-19 within 14 days after attending the NATP event. Your privacy is important to us. We will strictly adhere to HIPPA compliance standards.
